What is MUJI?

“NO LABEL. QUALITY GOODS”

MUJI is derived from its Japanese name ‘Mujirushi Ryohin’ which means ‘no label quality goods’. The brand launched in Japan in the 1980s with its no label, value-led, less is more concept.

MUJI is a renowned producer of stylish, functional and affordable quality goods that are relevant to all aspects of urban living, whether at work, rest or play.

Today MUJI has more than 800 stores worldwide and offers various consumer related products, including; household goods, stationery, travel accessories, beauty products and fashion.

In the Middle East, MUJI has stores in Kuwait, UAE, KSA, Bahrain, Qatar and Oman.

MUJI Philosophy & Values

Philosophy

- 1. Selection of materials:
We use many recycled materials, with an emphasis on quality. This enables us to create low-priced, high-quality products.
- 2. Streamlining processes:
Processes that have no bearing on a product's quality such as sorting, sizing, and polishing are eliminated. Focusing on true quality, MUJI's processes eliminate waste and reduce costs.
- 3. Simplification of packaging:
MUJI seeks to highlight products' natural colors and shapes. MUJI products appear in simple packaging bearing only product related information and a price tag.

Values

- 1. MUJI is not a brand whose value rests in the frills and "extras"
- 2. MUJI is simplicity – but a simplicity achieved through a complexity of thought and design
- 3. MUJI's streamlining is the result of careful elimination of gratuitous features and design unrelated to function
- 4. MUJI, the brand, is rational, and free of agenda, doctrine, and "isms"
- 5. MUJI aspires to modesty and plainness, to appeal to a wide group of people
